Looking for something to do this fall?

Come join the fun as we travel to Marshall, Michigan for dinner and a play.

Oklahoma

Based on Green Grow the Lilacs, a stage play Oklahoma! Brought together for the first time composers Richard Rodgers & Oscar Hammerstein II. The duo would go on to write nine Broadway musicals together, but none would be as important for the development of American musical theatre as Oklahoma! A milestone in its fusion of story, song and dance, the production even features a dream ballet which revealed the main characters hidden fears and desires.

The plot is simple, revolving mainly around the question of who will take Laurey Williams to the box social—the decent Curly McLain or the sinister Jud Fry. Musical numbers include “Oh, what a beautiful morning”, “Surrey with a fringe on the top” and of course “Oklahoma”.

When: Saturday, October 24, 2009
Where: Cornwell’s Dinner Theater in Marshall, Michigan
Time: Bus leaves Sparta Middle School at 8:45 a.m. Lunch served at 11:30 a.m.
Curtain time is 2:00 p.m. You should arrive back in Sparta around 6:00 p.m.
Cost: $57 by September 12 (Includes bus, dinner and play.).
Cancellations will not be accepted after this date.

It’s never too early!!

For information about the play, or to reserve your seat, call 887-7321.
